

DISNEY'S IMAGINATION MOVERS' "IN A BIG WAREHOUSE" BRINGS NATIONAL CONCERT TOUR TO GLENS FALLS CIVIC CENTER ON APRIL 14

TICKETS GO ON SALE NOVEMBER 12 VIA TICKETMASTER

Disney's Emmy Award-winning Imagination Movers will make a stop on their "In a Big Warehouse" concert tour presented by local promoter Andrew Meader from Applause Factory, on Thursday, April 14, 2011 at the Glens Falls Civic Center for two performances. The wildly popular New Orleans-based rock band for kids of all ages will go on sale via Ticketmaster, Friday, November 12 at 10 a.m.

Since signing to Walt Disney Records, the Imagination Movers have sold more than 100,000 albums, received multiple awards and earned critical praise from the Associated Press, Entertainment Weekly and many other media outlets. Their newest release, In a Big Warehouse, the soundtrack for the second season of the television series, hit the charts this fall, debuting at #2 on Billboard's Top New Artist Albums chart and bowing at #3 on Billboard's Children's Chart.

The Imagination Movers television series, which features the blue-suited band as brainstormers working hard to solve "Idea Emergencies" in their Idea Warehouse, is a hit with audiences around the world, airing in over 55 countries/territories and in 12 languages since September 2008. The Movers are currently filming the third season of the series and recently filmed a concert in their hometown of New Orleans with some very special guests. Season three of the series and the concert special will air in 2011. Imagination Movers airs daily during Disney Channel's Playhouse Disney programming block for preschoolers (to be rebranded Disney Junior in early 2011).

Tickets priced at $15, $25, $35, $45 will go on sale Friday, November 12 at 10 a.m. by visiting the Glens Falls Civic Center Box Office, Ticketmaster.com, or by calling 800-745-3000.
